Antitrust Policy

All project meetings are subject to the Linux Foundation Antitrust Policy. The following topics must not be discussed:

- Price-sensitive information
- Actual or projected changes in production, output, capacity or inventories
- Matters relating to bids, prospective bids, or bid policies
- Matters relating to actual or potential individual suppliers that might influence the business conduct of firms toward such suppliers
- Matters relating to actual or potential customers that might have the effect of influencing the business conduct of firms toward such customers
- Current or projected costs of procurement, development or manufacture of any product
- Market shares for any product or for all products
- Confidential or otherwise sensitive business plans or strategy

If you have questions, please contact legal@finos.org.

Standards Project IP Rules

All project activities are subject to the FINOS IP Policy. This includes the following:

- By participating in a standards project, each participant agrees to be bound by the FINOS IP Policy.
- If a participant owns any intellectual property rights necessary to implement the final approved standard, it agrees to license those rights to all implementers on a royalty-free, reasonable, and non-discriminatory basis.
- This license applies to the entire approved standard, including portions contributed by other participants.
- Upon joining the project, participants have 60 days to withdraw from the project and its licensing obligations. Withdrawal does not affect the license to any intentional submission made by the participant that is incorporated into a final specification.

If you have questions, please contact legal@finos.org.

FINOS

Fintech
Open Source
Foundation